cently in El Paso in possession of both bogus money and narcotics. The charge against him, was making and passing counterfeit U. S. money.

Under arrest in Dallas were two young men, hitchhikers Anya had picked up at Texarkana. One of the young men opened a suitcase he found in the back seat and extracted a bundle of money which he began spending when he and his companion left Anya's car at Dallas. An alert merchant learned money given him was counterfeit and tipped off secret service agents who arrested the hitchhiker.

Ellis, the San Antonio secret service agent, credited cooperation of Mexican officers in the arrests. He said the three arrested at Rio Grande City probably will be prosecuted at Brownsville. At Rio Grande City, Deputy Elbert expressed belief the money was being made in Chicago and sold cheaply to persons traveling to the lower Rio Grande valley. Elbert said Moye formerly lived in Rio Grande City but moved to Camargo about three years ago.

Ellis said the ring has been operating on both sides of the border and have passed counterfeit notes in almost every valley town, in Dallas and several Mexican cities.

He said two automobiles containing counterfeit bills were seized in Rio Grande City and one car was seized in El Paso.

Ellis said $1800 in fake $10 bills were seized in Dallas and a large number in Mexico.

seeders, ditch diggers, etc., were furnished by some 30 Navarro county businessmen.

Numerous types of fertilizer distributors and legume seeders were put in use on approximately 134 acres of land. This acreage was covered with about 1,400 pounds of superphosphate.

The phosphate-legume combination constitutes the "winter legume program" recommended by agricultural agencies to build up the soil and thereby increase the crop yield.

The Thompson homestead was completely revolutionized by a paint job, landscaping, installation of water and butane gas, and decorations, and planting of shrubbery and flowers about the small, four-room cottage.

Throughout the morning, a four of field operations were in progress. Lunch was available at noon at FFA concession stands.

The afternoon program, featuring several talks, was concluded with another tour of field activities. The throngs later witnessed the results of the day's work.

To use one spectator's words: "It was amazing." Under normal farming conditions, it would have taken young Thompson nearly five years to carry out the vast improvement program.

Dr. Gillen of Blooming Grove, gave a barbecue at 6:30 p. m. Thursday at the Blooming Grove gymnasium. Guests were members of the Navarro County Agricultural Workers' Association, who sponsored the field day with the FFA.

Afternoon speakers were L. J. Cappelman, state director of the Farmers' Home Administration; Jack Everheart, district conservationist of the SCS; Allan Bryant, farmer and seed breeder; and County Agent W. H. Walker.

Murray Cox, Dallas radio announcer, interviewed Mr. and Mrs. Thompson.

The speakers all urged the farmers to "return to your farms and practice what you saw here today."

Bryant termed the face-lifting a "school" and declared: "We're all learning things."

Thompson said he planned to continue a pasture improvement program, started by the "face-lifters" and have a livestock farm.

Diamond With Curse Proves Radioactive

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE

Associated Press Science Reporter
NEW YORK—How would you like a diamond with a curse?

This diamond is radioactive—so much so that it's dangerous to wear it. Rays shooting out from it can kill living flesh and bone. The gem will take its own picture just by being placed against photographic film.

The diamond is small, weighing less than one carat. But scientists say it is four times more radioactive than a comparable mass of pure uranium or thorium.

How the stone got that way is a mystery. John A. Hardy, a consulting engineer, tells about it in "Gems and Gemology," a journal of the Gemological Institute of America.

Originally the diamond had a deep lively green color, he said. It came from Belgium in 1933, but he doesn't know anything more about its history.

RADIOACTIVE diamond takes picture of itself in test at University of Michigan.

The green color changed suddenly to a golden yellow in 1940 when a jeweler accidentally heated the stone too much while shaving down its heavy setting. After scientists inspected it, the owner's wife immediately stopped wearing it.

The radioactivity had already started to attack the calcium in the bone of her finger.

University of Michigan scientists found the diamond is shooting out electrons and alpha particles, which are the nuclei or cores of helium atoms. Its radioactivity is apparently due to one form of radium, they said.

One possible explanation is that the diamond had once been packed close to radium or radon in the earth. Heavy atomic centers or nuclei from the radium penetrated deep into the diamond.

At Harvard it was found that diamonds, which are pure carbon will change to a green color and become radioactive when they are bombarded with deuterons in a cyclotron. Hardy's stone was bombarded at the University of Michigan in 1942, and it changed back to its original green color. It has kept that color since.

Testimony Of Bolivian Pilot About Crash Fatal To 55 Given To CAB

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—(AP)—

Erick Rios Brixoux, Bolivian pilot of the P-38 which crashed into an Eastern Air Lines plane killing 55 persons, told investigators he had reported trouble before he started his landing descent.

In a deposition put into the record of a Civil Aeronautics Board accident hearing, Rios said the Washington National Airport control tower "answered me 'O. K.'"

He said he had reported trouble but advised the tower he did not think it was an emergency.

Rios said he heard the tower's instructions to land in second place on runway three because airplanes were waiting to land.

He told the tower, Rios said, "I am going to land on runway number three. I am having a little trouble with the right engine."

"They answered me—called me by Bolivian number."

"I didn't see anything. I could not get any power. I couldn't get any more."

Earlier the investigators heard testimony that Rios acknowledged instructions as he headed toward the landing approach in which his fighter and the airliner collided.

All 55 persons aboard the Eastern Airlines passenger craft were killed in the crash near National Airport last week.

The testimony on radio contacts came from Donovan E. Davis of Arlington, Va., who was in charge of the airport control tower.

Davis said he heard Erick Rios Brixoux, Bolivian aviation director, respond "Roger" after being told to enter the left (meaning left turning) traffic pattern and to report west of the tower on his down wind leg.

On the down wind leg the plane would be parallel to the runway flying in the direction opposite to that in which the landing would be made.

Davis said the voice which replied "Roger" was the same accented voice he had heard earlier asking for landing instructions.

Glenn Tigner, 21, a National Airport traffic controller, conceded yesterday that his shouted warnings to the Bolivian pilot of a P-38 fighter plane might have gone out on the wrong channel—to be heard, instead, in the Eastern Airlines Transport which the fighter rammed moments later.

An inquiry panel set up by the Civil Aeronautics Board expected today to hear the views of Erick Rios Brixoux, director of Bolivian aviation, who was at the controls of the ill-fated P-38.

Rios Brixoux offered a detailed statement to investigators Monday at the Alexandria, Va., hospital where he is being treated for severe injuries suffered in the crash.

Maj. German Poi, another Bolivian aviation official, was one of the witnesses at yesterday's opening hearing.

Poi, who witnessed the collision from his parked automobile at the airport, said it appeared to him that the Eastern Airlines DC-4 had swerved into the fighter.

As for the P-38, Poi testified that his government had turned down the plane three times prior to the test flight—on one occasion because the radio was not working properly.

The Bolivian official said Rios Brixoux had indicated before the takeoff that the radio was working. But he added that Rios passed on a request to the control tower to instruct him by lights if his radio failed.

Tigner said he had not received such instructions. What's more, he said, lights might have confused both pilots, since they were coming in from the same direction.

which are not sound investments for private enterprise, the people, as a whole through their government, must accept the responsibility and pay the cost."

This, he concluded, "points up what we all instinctively recognize: Absolute security as a myth—we must choose between insecure alternatives." In conclusion, Whitman recommended the following program as "most promising" to secure sufficient petroleum for war or peace:

Active research for the development of better oil discovery methods; high exploratory activity hunting for new oil; restriction of production from new fields; securing of better information on the nation's maximum capacity to produce; development of specific projects looking toward better efficiency; development of the Western Canadian fields; and stockpiling of oil field and pipeline steel.

In addition, Whitman recommended that an oil rationing plan be prepared to take effect immediately on an emergency; important of as much oil as possible without hampering domestic production; development of synthetic oil; and development of refinery flexibility to permit higher yields of distilled products.

In another paper, four researchers from the Socony-Vacuum laboratories, New York City, said that less than one-third of the oil used in the U. S. is used effectively. They were W. M. Holaday, R. E. Albright, T. L. Apjohn, and L. R. Steffens.

They said: "Naturally-occurring energy (oil, coal, and water) sources are adequate to supply the ever-increasing demands of this country for centuries to come. For the foreseeable future, sufficient petroleum should be available to meet any and all transportation requirements."

He would not comment on the coal strike truce called by John L. Lewis. But he got a laugh when he said Lewis' picture—showing the mine union leader very stern-faced—was on the front page of a local paper. He asked newsmen to look at it.

Asked whether the steel and coal strikes could have been settled if the Taft-Hartley act was not held over them, he said that question should be put to the management and the workers. A query whether he had any plans for keeping the mines open in event the strike is resumed after Nov. 30, brought the reply that he would cross that bridge when he comes to it.

There was a lot of questions. In reply Mr. Truman said:

1. The state department has under consideration plans for a visit to the country of the Premier of Pakistan.

2. He has been invited to visit Bolivia, but he does not think he can go.

3. He had no news on prospects for a loan to Mexico for the development of oil resources in that country. He did not know, he said, whether negotiations are now underway.

4. He had no comment when a reporter asked if he had written a strong letter to Secretary of Interior Krug, dealing with differences on some reclamation policy.

The biggest vote against the measure came from sections where herds roam the Davy Crockett National Forest grazing lands.

A proposal by county commissioners to switch 15 cents tax from the general fund to county road funds was defeated, 853 to 644.

Must Follow Strong Foreign Policy, Col. I. G. Walker Tells Civitan Club

"We have never had before in our history the strong foreign policy we have today, and we must follow it," a former member of Gen. Douglas MacArthur's staff told Corsicana Civitans in their meeting here today.

Col. I. G. Walker, former instructor general on MacArthur's staff in occupied Japan, and at present instructor for the Waco district of the Organized Reserve Corps, asserted that our foreign policy must be adhered to.

"We must follow it, either to war, or else until the other side backs down. The government realizes this, and asks you to get someone who has had military training to come back and join the Reserves," Walker told the members.

"I am not preaching or advocating war," the veteran officer stressed. "If we know today what Russia is doing, our work here would be of an entirely different nature."

Served in Texas. Walker, who has served much of his army career in Texas where he was an instructor of military science at Texas A. and M. College for four years, landed at Hiroshima in Japan only weeks after the atomic bomb was dropped on that city.

He gave a thumbnail picture of conditions in Japan today—a Japan that shows little effect of the history-making bomb that was twice dropped on it, that has changed little as a result of the occupation, that still respects its emperor who rules the people through Gen. MacArthur, and that is "one of the most industrious countries I have ever seen."

"The biggest problem in Japan today is that of language—understanding them and getting them to understand us," Walker said.

Longer Occupation. Walker did not mention how long he thought it would be necessary for the U. S. to occupy Japan, but his remarks were indicative of a still longer tenure.

"What we've done for them (the Japanese) is not near what we have done for Europe," he said in respect to monetary aid. "To fall under the economic grip of China would be one of the worst things that could happen to Japan. They have no means of defending themselves since we have destroyed their arms."

John Garner and Joe Garner were on the program committee bringing Col. Walker's speech. The club voted to participate in donation to the Community Chest drive. Morris Battle presided at the meeting.

resolutions will be your office 2:30 o'clock Monday.

"Lewis, Chicago, Illinois." Ching said he had asked Lewis for a "clarification" because he said Lewis' message "appears not to be responsive" to the Federal invitation.

The conciliation service said the Lewis telegram, although signed Chicago, had been sent from the Washington office of the United Mine Workers.

Lewis and his 200-man policy committee had been in Chicago all week. It was there that he suddenly called off the 52-day coal strike yesterday, ordering his miners back to work until Nov. 30.

The conciliation service disclosed that Ching received the Lewis telegram late yesterday. The service attempted then, and again this morning, to get in touch with Lewis or a Lewis associate, who could clarify and confirm—that the wire was genuine and meant what it seemed to say.

Finally, Ching sent a telegram to the mine workers headquarters here saying the mine owners were standing by for a conference and that he wanted to hear more from Lewis.

Referring to the Lewis telegram, Ching said:

"This message appears not to be responsive to my wire and requires clarification inasmuch as no meeting has been called for Monday. Apparently there is some misunderstanding which may have resulted from the delayed transmission of my wire to you."

"I should appreciate your clarification as soon as possible. I have requested the representatives of the operators to extend me the courtesy of standing by in Washington until I hear from you."

"This wire is being sent to your Washington offices because I do not know where otherwise to address you."

Aides to Lewis told reporters they do not know where the union leader is.

Ching hopes through mediation meetings to head off a new strike at the month's end.

He is expected, if he can get Lewis and the operators together, to insist that they get down to

BOYLE'S Column

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—(AP)—With politics out of the way for another year, let us return to a quaint, old-fashioned subject that enthralls us all.

I refer to love — L'Amour, L'Amour.

The news from this crowded field is pleasant indeed to those dwelling in the shady years of life. For with no government subsidies of any kind, there has been wrought a "fair deal" for the middle-aged man in the politics of love. He has turned out to be the Romeo off our times.

No longer do maidens sigh for the young man with an apple in his hand. They turn to the older gent with a hundred acres of land. But he doesn't win them with his real estate. It's his sex appeal. For it isn't life that begins at 40 for the American man. It's love—you know, L'Amour, L'Amour.

The public awoke to this fact with the discovery that 57-year-old Ezio Pinza star of "South Pacific" was affecting the weaker sex in a way no other matinee idol has since Rudolph Valentino. This grandpa still has 'em gasping with his bass-bellied enchanted evening.

And it isn't just a one-man matter. The current issue of Cosmopolitan has found the same thing to be true in the movies: The real romantics — the eight top-drawing men film stars—are all over 40. Among the standouts are Bing Crosby, 45, Gary Cooper and Clark Gable, 48, and Humphrey Bogart, the dean of panda-huggers at 50, one year older than the century he lives in.

But this recognition of the amatory leadership of the time-mellowed male didn't become official—at least not in my mind—until it was confirmed by Dorothy Dix.

Well, 'tother day, Mrs. Dix said yes, it was true that men over 40 are most attractive to women. She said girl bobby soxers mightn't agree, but they didn't know any more about men than they did about food.

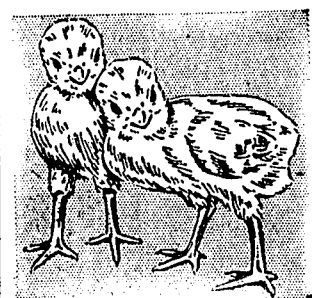

And Dorothy gave reasons. She said the mature fellows know more about life, had more to talk about—and understood women better than reckless youths. A bald head and a pot tummy didn't offset the intellectual charm that only years bring in her opinion.

Dorothy summed it up: "It is because the man of 40 knows women and can play upon them as upon a harp of a thousand strings that makes him more dangerous to women at that age than any other."

Ladies, I'm giving you fair warning. I'm 38, getting bald, and I'm 15 pounds overweight, but in two more years I'll be a swashbuckling, fascinating devil looking for his fair share of harp playing.

Isn't America A Wonderful Country!

All over the world today there are people teaching bitterness and hate.

Here in America we have learned to live together in friendship.

For us here at A&P, it has been a wonderful and thrilling experience to get from those with whom we compete day after day such astounding evidence of friendship and respect.

The things that have happened since the anti-trust lawyers from Washington brought suit to destroy A&P have amazed us.

While we sincerely believed that we had earned the friendship of millions of consumers for whom we have provided better food at lower prices, and the friendship of millions of farm families for whom we have provided a better market for their produce, we were not prepared for the avalanche of offers of support.

But most of all, we have to confess that we had underestimated the fine sportsmanship of many of our competitors all over the country.

Can anyone believe that these competitors would rush to our defense if, as the anti-trust lawyers allege, we had been trying to put them out of business?

We and they have fought hard for business.

There are nearly 350,000 individual grocers competing with us. They have a larger share of the nation's grocery business today than they had ten years ago or twenty years ago.

Many of them do as good a job as we do, and they make it plenty tough for us.

Now, day after day, these same competitors are letting us know that they are in our corner.

All we can say is, thank you from the bottom of our hearts.

Isn't America A Wonderful Country!

Who hollered for Uncle?

Who wants him to break up A&P?

COULD IT BE INDEPENDENT GROCERS? Doesn't seem likely. In ten years America's independent storekeepers almost tripled their business. In 1938 they did just under $1/2 billion dollars worth of food business. Last year the independent storekeepers handled over 15 billion dollars worth of food.

WHOLESALE GROCERS? Hardly. For many of them are directly or indirectly engaged in or supporting some form of voluntary or cooperative chain to match chain economies.

THE EMPLOYEES? That would be funny—except that some folks probably believe it. Actually, less than 25 years ago many food chain stores could have paid all expenses—rent, heat, light, wages, etc.—out of the money a store manager alone gets paid now. And the store manager of 25 years ago would have been happy to get what a clerk gets today.

PRODUCERS? Well, take farmers. Certainly part of their prosperity must be attributed to the markets that big chains create for them. The big chains buy the entire pack of many a canner. Those canneries pack the farmers' crops. What would the farmer do with his highly perishable crop if the food chains were eliminated as big volume buyers?

COMPETING CHAINS, MAYBE? No. Practically every chain in the grocery business had more sales last year than the year before. One chain that we know a lot about increased its food business 21% last year and is up 19% in the first eight months of this year.

THEN IT CERTAINLY MUST BE THE PEOPLE! Like fun. If the people hated food chain stores, would they have spent $1/2 billion dollars in them last year? Folks like the low prices and high standards of chains—and the better the chains are run, the better folks like them.

Does This Sound as Though We Need Help? Thorfare Super Markets came into existence 10 years ago. The food chains Thorfare replaced were doing about three million dollars worth of business a year. Housewives liked our policies well enough to boost their purchases in our 90 stores to about 30 million dollars a year.

We call that a vote of confidence. And we're going to keep right on proving that as long as we stick to good brands and better-than-average selections at rock-bottom prices, we can compete with anybody in the business. And keep right on growing, too!

We don't believe any chain will be punished for being efficient, or for pleasing housewives so well that it is forced to grow.

We, too, believe that it is a storekeeper's duty to bring the public the best food at the lowest possible prices, and hope to see the chain store way of doing business vindicated.

And as long as the producers, the employees, the customers, the wholesale grocers, the independents and the competing chains thrive so well, we will continue to think it's a good way to do business.

We Don't Want the A&P Put Out of Business

The owner of the undersigned store is an independent merchant in this community. We run our own store on our own price, maintain our own policy. We consider the Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co. as a chain store. Because they are a chain they give us stiff competition. The competition offered by the A&P keeps us on our toes.

The Department of Justice has brought a suit against the A&P claiming that the A&P is a monopoly.

Whether it is or not we are in no position to judge.

What we do know is that the A&P doesn't do all of the grocery business in this area. We are here and ready to serve local customers.

WE DON'T WANT TO SEE THE A&P PUT OUT OF BUSINESS.

The A&P is keeping food prices down. We in turn keep our prices down; and that helps us to sell more goods.

We Agree With A&P

Yes, we want our A&P competitors to stay in business on their present scale because we know what it would mean to the American people without them. We are only one store and are striving to serve our community with good food at low prices, but the A&P is a nationwide organization serving the American people everywhere with good food at low prices.

Destroying the A&P would mean eliminating competition nationally in the food field which every poor man knows consumes the major portion of his salary.

We congratulate the A&P for a job well done. Keep up the fight. We welcome any fair competition which helps us bring lower food prices to the consumer.

A COMPETITOR'S OPINION of The Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co.

The self-styled "trust busters" of the government recently made head-destroy the A&P.

Frankly, we don't like it. A&P is charged with having control of SOME of the production and processing ends of the food business. As a result, they can offer foods at low prices.

So What... And if monopoly of the food business is charged, that sure hands us a lift. We... at P.P.M. are growing like wildfire. Seems like we're able to sell better foods at better prices.

Your increasing patronage of our stores is positive proof that A&P has no monopoly on the food business. Let's get down to good old American horse sense. A&P is doing a good job of serving the people of this country. They're no bogey men. We are for them 100% in this controversy.

I Welcome A&P Competition BECAUSE

• • • • • The great A&P is not detrimental to the progress of the grocery business. On the contrary, A&P has always been beneficial to any open-minded businessman who believes in FREE ENTERPRISE. Founded on the principle of FAIR PLAY and FAIR PRICES, A&P developed from a humble start to its present commanding position in the field of retail merchandising.

• • • • • My experience as a former employee of the TEA COMPANY has served me well. I attribute my success to the ideas and methods tried, tested and proven by the A&P stores—at a great cost.

• • • • • A&P upholds the rights and privileges of a good worker. I know this from personal experience. A&P is ever on the lookout to promote sincere and ambitious employees to trustworthy and important positions and has never crossed the efforts of any employee to enter into business for himself. A&P helped me to start in business... IS THAT AN ACT OF A COMPANY MONOPOLIZING THE GROCERY BUSINESS? NO!

A&P taught me to serve the public BETTER—MORE ECONOMICAL and MORE EFFICIENT, thanks to the start given me by B. F. VINSON.

• • • • • During the depression of the thirties, A&P paid higher wages than any other chain. A&P has striven to keep up the standard of living in this country. I shudder to think what would happen to its 110,000 employees if it was forced out of business.

• • • • • I am not afraid of A&P competition—I welcome it. It's democratic—it's the American Way.

The Anti-Trust Suit Against The Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co.

This suit is another threat against our great American system of free enterprise. The A&P Co. has always been clean, above board competition and any successful independent merchant, if he is honest, will admit that they have taught him a great many things regarding merchandising, reducing overhead, better buying, etc., thus lowering food costs for the great American Public.

Upward Trend Of Polio Cases In Texas Last Week

AUSTIN, Nov. 10.—(AP)—The number of new polio cases bounced upward again in Texas last week. Fifty-two more patients were reported, compared with 35 the previous week, state health officials said today.

The 52 cases more than double the 25 reported for the same week a year ago. It shot the year's total to 2,190 cases from 1,970 cases, far exceeding the 1,765 reported in 140 counties during the entire year of 1948.

"Polio, despite approaching winter, is still a threat to Texas public health," Dr. George W. Cox, the state health officer, commented.

Harris county (Houston) had a large upsurge of patients, listing 14 cases.

Palo Pinto county (Mineral Wells) had its first polio incidence of 1949 with two cases reported. Tom Green county (San Angelo), where health officials say the disease has raged longer and more severely than any other community in the United States, enjoyed a slackening rate. Only one new case was discovered.

Incidence in other counties: Hutchinson, 4; Comanche, 3; Hill, 2; Dawson, Ector, Galveston, Gillespie, Gray, Hale, Gregg, Howard, Kaufman, Lamar, Lynn, Nueces, Reagan, Smith, Somerville, Taylor, Terry, Wharton, Wichita and Wilbarger, 1 each.

Esther Williams' Figure Improves With Maternity

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 10.—(AP)—I am pleased to report today that Esther Williams' figure is even better since she had a baby.

Yes, it's true. What effects this news will have on the National birth rate is a question. It may help push the U. S. toward the 300,000,000 population mark Mr. Truman has been talking about.

I happened to observe the movie mermaid's figure on the set of "Duchess of Idaho." Strictly from a reporter's viewpoint, you understand, it seemed to me the chassis was as classy as ever. If not classier.

I asked if there hadn't been some improvement in the topography. "It's strange," she admitted, "but I seem to have lost an inch from my hips. None of my dresses fit anymore."

The vital statistics? "I'm still 36," she said, "26 1-2 in the waist and 35 in the hips. I used to be 36 in the hips and 28 in the waist. I should be able to take off that half-inch with no trouble."

But wait a little minute, added Esther. She doesn't want to convey the impression that her frame magically improved after motherhood.

"Other mothers will hate me," she said. "They know it's no cinch to gain back your figure after having a child."

"Every mother owes it to herself and her husband to do all she can to get her figure back to normal. Nature needs a little help. This matter for only exercise and proper diet can tighten the muscles and tone up your general health."

"I was lucky to be able to start swimming a month after my baby arrived. I have also been conscientiously touching my toes and doing other exercises for the first time in my life. And I feel wonderful."

"It isn't easy, but it's certainly worth the effort. I'd do it even if I weren't in pictures. After all, any mother likes to be able to step on the scales without shuddering."

Okay, mothers, take it from here.

CHEST CAMPAIGN

increase it to 45 cents. That's about a day's pay, still owe you 18 cents about I'll be in to pay it."

As the Daily Sun carrier left the office he said, "I know several more of the newsmen want to give to the Chest. I'm sure they'll be coming in at some time."

After filling out Billy's pledge card and giving him his Chest button the officials again started checking the day's pledges.

They noted a great share of the pledges were for $1. The chest officials want it known that all contributions, big or small, are equally important to the Chest's drive for $42,346.

However, they expressed the thought if more people would stop to consider they are giving to 11 agencies and not just one they'd probably increase the dollar gifts.

One official said, "If these folks were contacted for each of the 11 agencies covered by the chest they'd probably give at least $1 to each."

"We don't want those who gave $1 to feel their gift isn't important. Every cent we collect is important to the drive and the agencies the Community Chest supports."

"Anyone who wants to increase his pledge may do so by calling the Chamber of Commerce office."

The officials pointed out anyone not contacted by a Chest fund collector could leave his contribution at the Chamber of Commerce office.

"A phone call to the office will bring a collector to pick up any contribution," Brown added.

Campaign members met at the Navarro hotel Wednesday afternoon and reported pledges of $14,339.25 for the first day of the general drive.

Clam Chowder Can Be Dynamite!

If Smiley Roberts is a friend of yours, like he is mine, and if you want to keep his friendship, like I do, don't ever let him hear you say that good clam chowder can't be made without cream.

In New England, where Smiley comes from, friendships have been broken over tomatoes versus cream in clam chowder. Experts say that south of Boston the tomato reigns supreme, but north of Boston it's cream—or else!

From where I sit, whether it should have cream or tomatoes is simply a matter of taste. This is plain to anyone who doesn't come from clam chowder country.

What a great world this would be if we could all see that most prejudices are matters of taste only. Some like hot coffee. Some like iced. Some people like a temperate glass of beer. Others prefer ice-cold lemonade. My grandmother, used to say, "Prejudice that sees only what it pleases, cannot see very plain."

Policies Regarding Student Control Discussed By School Board; Travis Controversy Over Ball Park Is Up

Corsicana's Board of Education dug into policy-making matters Tuesday night and came up with this unanimous decision:

All past policies regarding control over students, their relationships and off-the-campus activities, will be continued.

The board also acted on the Travis school controversy over Terri Park by tossing the matter, in effect, into the lap of the Softball Association. Travis PTA has urged removal of the high fence surrounding the park.

In reaffirming past policies, the trustees announced that the district's 3,000 pupils—when in the immediate vicinity of school—will remain under the control of teachers, principals and the administration, Supt. W. H. Norwood said.

It was reported there had been some confusion relative to school authorities' "jurisdiction" over students. It had been the past policy, Norwood said, that children en route to school, and returning from school, still were under control of the teachers.

And during school hours, students "must come directly to the campus" when in the immediate vicinity of the school, it was announced.

"We have got to keep students from congregating in great numbers on the streets," Norwood said.

The attendance policy also was reaffirmed by the board. Students will be given the opportunity to make up their lost work, Norwood pointed out that a girl who is absent while "going to Dallas with her rich mother to buy a dress" should be treated no differently from the poor man's son who drops out occasionally to work.

The student council will be encouraged to participate in school matters, but it will be left under the control of teachers and administrators, Norwood said.

Although no reporter was present at the board meeting, indications were that students, particularly those in senior high school, were of the erroneous opinion that the school's jurisdiction ended "off the campus."

The Travis PTA at a meeting Sept. 29 unanimously voted to recommend removal of the Terri Park fence, Norwood said. A letter sent to the school board and to the Softball Association, listed the following reasons for the PTA action:

1. Added safety hazard because of impediment of vision. Motorists fail to see children who are constantly darting in and out of the park.

2. More teacher supervision is required during playground periods; because the fence is so high, teachers can not see into the park from the outside.

3. The fence is unsightly and "thereby causes pupil unrest," Norwood said.

The board decided to advise Mrs. W. C. Lewis, Travis PTA president, that:

"We have been assured by people in the vicinity that they are highly pleased to have it (Terri Park) there. We believe that some playground space of this nature should be provided for their benefit."

In acknowledging the PTA request and promising further consideration, the board, according to Norwood, pointed out that the fence was the property of the softball association, that the board consented for this group to use the playground.

The board's belief, said Norwood, was that the request should be directed to the softball organization.

There was no comment from the association Wednesday.

The trustees, five of whom attended the meeting in Norwood's office, also set a policy on operation of old school property in those districts annexed to Corsicana.

Petitions were submitted from the Oak Valley and Corbett Community centers, requesting that their old property be transferred to their management and control. The request was granted subject to these conditions, Norwood said:

"We want you to have use and control of the property until such time as the Corsicana School Board may have need for it, or until you may want to relinquish it to the board. If you use the property, we shall expect you to maintain it in a useable state, of repair and carry a moderate amount of insurance, and pay the necessary expenses of operation."

"While we don't anticipate any further need or use of the property, we are not in a position to consider a formal or legal transfer."

Other matters taken up by the board follow:

The senior high auditorium was rented November 8 to the Junior Chamber of Commerce for a bill, show, to Cotton Mill for its Christmas program on Dec. 23; to Corsicana churches (no charge) for a union Thanksgiving service

Wolf Trapper Is Prepared To Snare Panther

Collection Of County Poll Tax To Start Dec. 1

Collection of poll taxes in Navarro county will begin about December 1, Arnold A. Armstrong, assessor and collector of taxes, announced Wednesday morning following the state-wide decision of the voters not to eliminate the poll tax requirement for voting.

Armstrong telephoned the stationery house early Wednesday morning ordering the poll tax receipts. The forms were already set up and the presses are rolling out the receipts as fast as possible.

The tax officer said some counties anticipated the need for the receipts and had ordered them in advance, but that he had waited.

Armstrong estimates approximately 10,000 poll tax payments in Navarro county since the Democratic primaries in addition to the general elections will be held during 1950. This is considerably in excess of the 1949 poll tax payments, an off-year politically. The 10,000 figure does not include the exemptions, over and under. Exemptions for persons over 60 years of age are not required outside the City of Corsicana, the only town over 10,000 population in the county.

The poll tax payments can be made until January 31, 1950.

Principals' requisitions for physical education equipment, costing about $1,000, were approved. Tuition, transportation and bus expense reports were approved.

Athletic association bills totaling $4,319.42 were approved as were school district bills totaling $6,669.96.

Mrs. Melita Knox Fendley was employed on a part-time basis as a book-keeper for the school cafeteria. Her office will be in the tax office.

Injuries Beset Both Clubs On Eve Of Annual Test

The Kerens Bobcats and the State Home Lads were winding up drills this week for their scheduled meeting in Kerens Friday night at 7:30.

The winner of this tilt can practically write its own ticket for the championship of the 1949 20-B race.

Should Kerens win the Friday tilt, it would have only Coolidge and Frost left to play, and neither of them is rated a chance of upsetting the Laddies.

The Kerens-Laddies tilt Friday, always one of the most closely-watched games in 20-B from year to year, gains added stature this week because of the fact that Kerens' homecoming activities will be scheduled on that date.

A picnic lunch will be spread on the school grounds there at 5:30 for the ex-students of that school, and during the halftime intermission at the game brief speeches will be made by Kerens city officials. Several other recreational events will round out the homecoming celebration.

In practice this week, both State Home and Kerens were having their troubles with injuries.

Odus Simmons, promising second-string quarterback for Kerens, was injured in a scrimmage session Tuesday afternoon and was brought to the P. and S. Hospital here immediately.

Ray pictures were to be taken of the boy's back Wednesday morning to determine the exact extent of his injuries.

Simmons, who has only been out for football 10 days, showed great promise, and played 45 minutes of the Kerens-Mildred game last week.

Coach Doyle Waller of the Laddies has four members of his squad with knee troubles, but at least two of these will be in good enough shape to play in the Kerens contest, the coach said Wednesday. Otherwise, the defending district champs are in good physical shape, after holding a scrimmage session Tuesday night with the Corsicana Tigers.

Only light drills were on the agenda for the Laddies for Wednesday.

On the basis of scoring to date, State Home rates a slight edge over Kerens. The Lads have rolled up 228 points this season while limiting the opposition to 77. Kerens has scored a total of 177 points to 14 for the opposition.

However, on the basis of scores against mutual opponents, the two teams rate even to par.

There is no question but what each team faces its toughest opponent of the season in the Friday contest. A huge crowd is expected to create a riot at Kerens for the annual classic.

In other 20-B games scheduled Friday, Italy travels to Coolidge, and Set goes to Hubbard, while the Mildred-Bloomington Grove clash has been changed.

The Eagles met the Lions in Bloomington Grove Thursday night at 7:30, getting a one-day jump out of the rest of the teams.

Season records for State Home and Kerens follow:

Mental Illness Can Be Curbed, Says Speaker At Christian Church Meeting

Mental illness—a disease now sweeping the nation—could be curbed if man were supplied with four basic things, W. H. McKinney, outstanding Christian layman of Indianapolis, Ind., declared here Wednesday night.

Addressing the final session of the district Disciples of Christ convention at the First Christian Church, McKinney declared:

Man needs (1) a happy home, (2) a job, (3) recreation and (4) he needs to know God and how to worship.

"All over the country people are breaking up mentally," the speaker asserted. He declared that men are willing to work in Christian activities, but need to be shown what to do.

"Men want to know God but they don't know how to go about finding him. Lots of preachers get up and yell a lot of words but they don't know what they're talking about; and that's why a lot of preachers are breaking down."

Emphasizing the power of men in Christian leadership, the ex-Army chaplain kept his audience laughing at numerous jokes seldom heard in a sanctuary.

"We need to laugh," he said. "Humor is a fine thing. Look at Jesus—talking about 'swallowing a camel.' Now, can't you just imagine someone swallowing a camel—humps and all."

Then there was the one about the man, cursing a bluestreak, futilely attempting to put a tire on a wheel of his car. An approaching preacher advised the man that cursing wouldn't get him anywhere, but if he would pray, the tire would go on. The man stopped cursing and said a prayer. Then, he easily slipped the tire on his wheel.

The preacher muttered: "Well, I'll be damned!"

McKinney contended "we're spending too much time telling people how to get into Heaven and not enough time telling how to get Heaven into them; and we're spending too much time telling people how to get out of hell and not enough time telling how to get hell out of them."

McKinney's address concluded an all-day convention which attracted scores of Christians from some 52 churches. The annual meeting was divided into three sessions, beginning at 10 a. m. Wednesday morning.

The following officers were elected at the afternoon session: Dr. Robert B. Wolford, Dallas physician, president, succeeding Don Root, also of Dallas; Rev. A. A. Harman, Dallas, vice president; and Miss Eunice Tuel, Dallas, secretary and treasurer.

A banquet was held at the church at 6:30 p. m. with H. Parr Armstrong, a director of the Laymen's League, Texas Christian Churches, as the featured speaker.

Other speakers during the convention were Wayne Selsor of Irving; Ben Hearn, Fort Worth; Hollis Turley, Indianapolis; Dean Harrison, Dallas; Patrick Henry, Sr., of Fort Worth; and Homer Halsell, St. Louis.

Host pastor for the District 14 convention was Herbert G. Dudley.

Houston Youths Have Fun With Hand Grenades

HOUSTON, Nov. 10.—(AP)—Five boys found 16 hand grenades in a muddy bayou. They played with them for two days. Some fun—real hand grenades.

Yeah, said Ammunition Expert Sol Cohen, and some luck—that the boys didn't get blown to bits.

The grenades appeared old. But Cohen, chief ammunition inspector at the San Jacinto Ordnance Depot, said some explosives can stay under water for years without losing their power.

Theodore Buselmier, 15, Joe Oubre, 13, Lee Wilson, 11, David Mc-

Williams, 12, and Dan Davidson, 11, found the grenades Monday.

One boy said he dropped a grenade on a sidewalk — just to scare a girl. Oh, Boy! Two said they intended to take some to school yesterday, but their parents wouldn't let them.

One parent called Army and Air Force experts. They found 37 more grenades and a bazooka rocket in the bayou. Nobody knew how the stuff got there.

The experts said the shells were too dangerous to be unloaded, even at the depot. They ordered the lot destroyed.

The experts just about dropped their teeth when they found out that young Buselmier had already unloaded one of the grenades with a screwdriver.

Slippery Highway Shoulders Cause Many Traffic Accidents In County

Texas Highway Patrolman Jack Gaines told the Lions Club Tuesday that Navarro county's slippery highway shoulders are a big factor in local traffic accidents.

"Up the shoulders are fixed, we're going to have lots of property damage and loss of lives," the officer declared at the weekly luncheon in Navarro Hotel.

Speaking on "Highway Safety," Gaines reminded his audience that "driving is a 100 per cent job, and you must be alert at all times to operate a vehicle safely."

Gaines reported that Texas highway traffic has increased 17 per cent over last year, and that the Department of Public Safety is doing its best to reduce accidents.

Fifteen per cent of the drivers cause 85 per cent of the accidents, the patrolman declared. "It's that 15 per cent we're after. But they keep watch for one of those black and white (patrol) cars, and when they see one they're going to stop."

The DPS, he said, is fighting the accident problem three ways, known as the "Three E's". They are: Education, Engineering and Enforcement.

The officer then cited the engineering problem in Navarro county, suggesting that all motorists report accidents to the Department of Public Safety so that the highway department will correct them.

Many persons have minor accidents on shoulders during wet weather, but reports aren't turned in, he said.

Gaines said there were 17 accidents in the county during the last wet spell. Although no injuries resulted, these minor mishaps resulted in about $4,100 damage. He emphasized that the shoulders should be gravelled.

The officer also pointed out that 31 per cent of the accidents occur at bridges, and he cited a state law now in effect prohibiting passing of a vehicle within 100 feet of a bridge, on the approaches.

Other traffic safety pointers brought to the Lions' attention were:

1. Check vehicle's lights.
2. Never follow too closely behind another vehicle, allowing a car length's distance between the vehicles for every 10 mile per hour speed.
3. Road highway signs.
4. Be a courteous driver.

Fifty-five members attended the luncheon. Guests included Edwin Daniels, Fred Brooks, Dallas; John Mack Burkhardt and Peggy Everett, good citizens from the Corsicana High School.

Secretary John Henry Bryant reported that complete tabulations on the highway carnage revealed a gross intake of $1,289, of which $919.62 was spent, leaving a net income of $369.38.

It was announced that the Bloomington Grove Lions Club would have a "Ladies Night" affair next Monday at 7:30 p. m.

Don Winslow also announced that a Thanksgiving Union Service would be held at the Corsicana High School at 10 a. m. Thursday.

Four Hundred Attend First Baptist Victory Banquet; Open House Sunday

"Open House" will be observed at the new educational building of the First Baptist church Sunday afternoon, Dr. J. R. Cartledge, pastor, announced at the Victory banquet held in the basement dining room Monday night.

More than 400 attended the turkey banquet. An impressive program was presented. Dr. Cartledge stated that more than 200 sought reservations after the deadline Sunday noon. This was the largest banquet in the history of this church.

The pastor was master of ceremonies. The invocation was pronounced by Rev. R. J. Fletcher, and the benediction was given by Mr. A. T. Kell, chairman of the board of deacons.

The pastor said the open house will be for the entire membership and friends.

Mrs. Dottie Howell, director of the training, spoke of the work of that department in a well-rounded program of missions, church doctrine, and training. She introduced all directors.

Roy Britton, general superintendent of the Sunday School, pointed out that facilities are available for the entire family and that the goal for Sunday was 1100. There are 19 departments in the Sunday School including the mission. Departmental superintendents were presented.

Dr. Cartledge spoke of the WMU, headed by Mrs. E. C. Lee, deacons with Kell as chairman; Russell Purifoy, finance committee chairman; Mrs. Hanna, choir director; Travis Pulwood, L. B. Dawson and S. Little Roberts, building committee.

The pastor pointed out, however, that the new building represented the co-operative efforts of the entire church and not a few individuals.

He spoke of large contributions made by persons not here now, and mentioned the late Tom L. Tyson, chairman of the board of deacons, and the late C. A. Midgley, chairman of the church.

He said that Tyson had much to do with the preparation of the pamphlet distributed several months ago before his death entitled "Dream coming true," relating to the enlarged program in progress.

Two Highway Construction Jobs Are Scheduled For Completion This Week

Two highway construction jobs in this section are scheduled to be completed this week and plans and specifications for other jobs will be the main work for the local state highway engineering corps.

Construction of dirt and drainage structures on one job was started Monday.

The farm-market road from Highway 22 west of Frost to Emmett, slightly in excess of six miles, is slated to be completed this week in the event that present weather conditions prevail.

The "shooting" with asphalt was started Monday on that portion first constructed. The last section of the soil work was completed early this week.

The widening project on Highway 75 from Corsicana to Ennis is slated to be finished Wednesday. The pavement is being widened from 18 to 22 feet. This project was started here several months ago and proceeded northward.

Dirt and drainage structures on the nine-mile farm-to-market road from a point west of Powell on Highway 31 to near Montfort were started by the contractor Monday morning.

Plans are being prepared on

Baptist Church Is Rejected By Missionary Body

DALLAS, Nov. 10.—(AP)—Bethel Baptist Church of Jacksonville will have to try another year if it still wants to be a member of the Baptist Missionary Association of Texas.

The organization turned down the East Texas church's application yesterday for the second straight year. The vote was 188-150.

The BMA is a cooperative organization of 599 Baptist churches in Texas. It was formed in 1900 by churches which disagreed with the Baptist General Convention of Texas.

The Rev. Gerald D. Keller, president of the Jacksonville Baptist College and President of the BMA, opposed the Bethel application. He said the Bethel church was "not in harmony" with the First Baptist Church in Jacksonville.

Mr. Albert Garner, pastor of the Bethel church, said the application was "not in harmony" with the First Baptist Church in Jacksonville.

The Bethel church was formed two years ago. Some of its members formerly were members of Jacksonville's First Baptist church.

Keller was re-elected president of the association. Other officers named included the Rev. George C. Henry of Jola, Grimes county, and the Rev. Harley L. Groom of Carthage, Panola county, vice-presidents; the Rev. Roy B. Flippo of Amarillo and the Rev. A. R. Houston of Grand Prairie, recording secretaries.

Previously, the Woman's Auxiliary of the BMA elected officers. They are Mrs. E. J. Banks of Port Arthur, president; Mrs. L. E. Ray of Waxahatchie, Mrs. W. B. Richardson of Irving and Mrs. W. Clyde Smith of Mineola, Wood county, vice-presidents; Mrs. H. C. Campbell of Tomball, Harris county, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Freddie Maddux of Palmer, Ellis county, editor of the Woman's page in the Baptist Progress, and Mrs. L. W. Wadley of Dallas and Mrs. Earl Webb of Garland, recording secretaries.

Estimate On Corn Crop Is Lower Than Last Month

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—(AP)—The agriculture department, in its next to last report of the year, today estimated this year's corn crop at 3,387,618,000 bushels.

This is 119,388,000 bushels less than the 3,476,998,000 forecast a month ago.

It compares with last year's record crop of 3,650,548,000 bushels and with the ten year (1938-47) average of 2,787,628,000 bushels.

The indicated crop is considerably larger than prospective needs. This fact will require the department to impose acreage allotments on the 1950 crop to cut production and to prevent a burdensome surplus.

The national planting allotment is expected to be around 76,000,000 acres, or about 10,000,000 less than was planted for this year's crop.

City Will Start Issuing Poll Tax Receipts By First Of Next Week

Defeat of the state poll tax amendment in Tuesday's election requires that city, county and state poll taxes still must be paid.

Miss Kate Dunn, city tax assessor and collector, today said poll tax receipts would be ordered and would be ready by the first of the week.

She said persons who have paid their taxes would be required to come to the tax office to get their poll tax receipts. Others may pay their poll tax when they pay their regular taxes.

All poll taxes must be paid before midnight, Jan. 31. City Attorney Julius Jacobs said.

Seeing a possibility that the poll tax amendment would be defeated, the city commissioners provided for a $2000 tax in the city when the annual budget was passed.

Jacobs pointed out that citizens must pay the county and state poll tax ($1.75) in order to purchase a city poll tax for city election privileges. However, he added, one doesn't have to purchase a city tax to vote in county and state elections.

Exempted by state law, Jacobs said, are persons over 60 years of age, youths who have just reached their 21st birthday and others provided for by state law.

"Those reaching their 21st birthday are given a year's free voting if they get their exemption from the county," the city attorney pointed out.

Miss Dunn said the following city poll taxes were sold during the past five years:

In 1948, 1949: 1947, 2,221; 1946, 2,118; 1945, 1,954, and 1944, 1,506.

Production And Lots Of It Needed, Waco Banker Tells Rotary Members

Predicting devaluation and inflation will hit the United States in 18 months unless methods are taken to forestall this outcome, Robert Dupree, Waco, today told the Corsicana Rotary club, production and lots of it was needed.

The Waco banker said history has proven that U. S. currency has been devaluated and inflationary methods practiced in about that length of time when other countries devaluated their money in the past.

"Free enterprise depends on personal savings and free enterprise means personal liberty," said the speaker.

He charged the government has gone to the aid of several foreign countries and to groups in the United States but has made no subsidy for the individual with the "saved dollar."

Speaking about the loans made to England, Dupree said:

"A loan is not a gift in business long as it made non-repayable loans such as the government has made."

He said U. S. business in already feeling the effect of the devaluated money, and continued:

"In order to meet the extravagant demands the government is forcing on us, and in order to keep our standard of living we need lots of production."

A telegram from Phil Willis acknowledging the election of George W. Ball to the Texas senate was read and Nokes briefly addressed the club.

Included in the visiting Rotarians were Lindy Millender of Porto Rico, Brazil, Millender said he lived in Corsicana in 1901.

Other visiting Rotarians were G. A. McCreight, Longview, and Dean Monroe Carroll, Baylor University.

Guests included Clayton Edwards and Junior Rotarians Bennett Stokes and Luther Tyson.

Herman Brown, the program chairman, urged the Rotarians to contribute to the Community Chest campaign.

Local Football Teams To See Crucial Tests In Battles This Week-End

Practically all the football teams in Navarro county see action this week as the 1949 grid season gets to the point where at least one of the major battles will be decided for all local purposes.

A thrilling Class B game practically steals the thunder from AA and junior college attractions this week-end. The State Home-Kerens battle, scheduled in Kerens Friday night at 8:30, should leave only one undefeated team in District 20-B.

The undefeated Corsicana Tigers and the thrice defeated Navarro Bulldogs leave the home coral for games.

Corsicana travels to Ennis Friday night to meet the Lions, who are winless in eight starts this season. The Tigers are the top-heavy favorites, but a host of Corsicana fans will follow the Tigers, not in case the Lions should make a game of it.

Navarro's Bulldogs meet Panola's Ponies, conceded to be the strongest team in their loop, in Carthage Saturday night, and the underdog role goes to the Navarro county boys as upset here would respond to the favor corners of the zone.

Mildred and Blooming Grove, in Class B circles, steal a march on the rest of the teams by playing tonight, Nov. 10, in Blooming Grove at 7:30. The game was changed from Friday afternoon on agreement between the two teams.

Blooming Grove, running close behind State Home and Kerens with only one defeat, is the heavy favorite to take this game. Mildred has but one win to its credit this season.

Frost goes to Hubbard Friday night, and Italy to Coddridge in the other Class B games. Neither game has a bearing on the top position.

Neither State Home nor Kerens will be in top shape for their clash Friday. The Bobcats' Dink Reese, ace quarterback, will play with an ankle that will limit his activities. His sub, Odis Simmons, is not likely to be available, due to a wrenched back suffered this week in scrimmaging.

Production And Lots Of It Needed, Waco Banker Tells Rotary Members

"We need better engineering and production methods, new applications of techniques, and inventions. We should welcome imports from other countries, lower the tariff if necessary and export all we can. Subsidize export, too, if needed."

The speaker charged that taxation system was out of line and should be altered so enterprise would be recognized and encouraged.

"What if imports do lower the prices of U. S. produced goods? Let the chips fall where they may. There's nothing wrong with cheap production," declared the Waco banker.

A telegram from Phil Willis acknowledging the election of George W. Ball to the Texas senate was read and Nokes briefly addressed the club.

Entertainment Program For Opening Of Christmas Season Is Discussed

A gala entertainment program for the opening of the Christmas season in Corsicana was discussed by two committees of the Chamber of Commerce Thursday. The program, if presented, would cost about $1,000 and the tentative date has been set for Nov. 25. A meeting for final acceptance or rejection of the plan will be held in the Chamber of Commerce office at 10:30 a. m. Friday. All interested merchants and business men are urged to be present.

Members of the Christmas decorations and activities committees heard E. Johnson, Marlin, describe his "Christmas Circus." The circus, complete with Santa Claus, would cost $275. Other costs for the pre-Christmas opening include street lighting and decorations.

If accepted, the "Christmas Circus" would be presented during the day of Nov. 25, and would be followed by the turning on of the Christmas lights that evening. Complete window displays also would be featured at that time.

The committee men who attended the meeting decided Nov. 25 would be the best time as it is early enough to encourage Christmas buying, and also because the school children will be on Thanksgiving vacation on that date.

Johnson said he had been putting on his pre-Christmas circus for eight years and already has signed Mineola, Kilgore and Italy in this area for this year.

He said his program consists of a band concert in the morning. The concert is presented from a platform truck and could be given in all of the business blocks. This is followed by the appearance of Santa Claus and his reception for the children. This portion of the program also can be staggered throughout the business area. The music is provided by Tony Duncan and his Lazy Riders, a six-piece string orchestra.

The circus program includes two aerial acts, a loop-the-loop act, dog performance, acrobats and jugglers, comedy acts and clowns.

The circus lasts about an hour, he said. If chosen, the circus probably will be staged in the triangle park at the foot of South Beaton street. Present plans call for the band concert and appearance of Santa Claus from 9:30 a. m. until noon, and the circus from 3 to 4 p. m.
